Section 1: Reading for Ideas

Read Passage 1 in the insert and answer all the questions below.

1 (a) Notes [15 Marks]

Identify and write down the advantages and disadvantages of social networking sites, as outlined in the passage.
USE THE MATERIAL FROM THE WHOLE PASSAGE.
At this stage, you need NOT use your own words. To help you get started, the first point in each section of notes is done for you. You will be awarded up to 15 marks for content points.

MAIN POINTS
Advantages of social networking sites
• People can get in touch with friends easily
Disadvantages of social networking sites
• Relationships formed are too impersonal to be described as real friendships

1 (b) Summary [5 Marks]

Now use your notes to write a summary of the advantages and disadvantages of social networking sites, as outlined in the passage.

This time, you will be awarded up to 5 marks for using your own words wherever possible and for accurate use of language.

Your summary, which must be in continuous writing (not note form), must be no longer than 160 words, including the 10 words given below. Begin your summary as follows:

Many people are in favour of social networking sites because .....

2 Paragraph 2 gives two examples of 'down time'. From your own knowledge or experience give two examples of 'down time' as defined in lines 13–14. Do not use the examples given in the passage.

One example is .....

Another example is .....

.....[2]

3 From paragraph 4, select and write down two of the writer's opinions. You may use the words of the text or your own words.

One opinion is .....

Another opinion is .....

.....[2]

4 From your reading of the whole passage, decide which one of the following statements is true and tick the box you have chosen.

The writer thinks that the advantages of social networking sites outweigh the disadvantages. ☐

The writer thinks that the disadvantages of social networking sites outweigh the advantages. ☐

The writer is unsure whether or not the advantages of social networking sites outweigh the disadvantages. ☐
