Question 2

(a) Read this extract from the text:

‘You could live a thousand lifetimes and not even begin to scratch the surface of paddling all the possibilities.’ (lines 35–36)

What does the writer want to suggest to us about how he feels about paddling in Northern Canada?

..... [1]

(b) Explain why the writer uses the phrase ‘most efficient’ rather than the word ‘efficient’ in the expression ‘To devise the most efficient route I could’. (line 37)

.....

..... [1]

(c) What two impressions does the writer want to convey to the reader in the sentence:

‘Looking at what at first glance appeared to be an incomprehensible labyrinth – a puzzle of lakes and ponds – I realised it could be deliciously challenging not to confuse one bay or inlet for any of the thousands of others.’ (lines 38–40)?

..... [2]

(d) Read this sentence from the text:

‘Roaring, swirling, foaming water pulling back and forth on my boots made holding on to the canoe, while struggling to maintain my balance, almost impossible.’ (lines 45–46)

What effect does the writer want to suggest about the water by using the words ‘Roaring, swirling, foaming’?

(e) Identify one example of how the writer uses language effectively to convey his feelings as the morning haze clears in this extract from the text:

‘The haze cleared to reveal a fairy-tale landscape: vivid green hills, jumbles of boulders beyond counting scattered about, and little streams crashing a path down the craggy hillsides. Behind me rose towering great grey cliffs of rock, old as time, the oldest rock on the planet, so cracked with fault lines as to give the suggestion of ancient crumbling castle ruins. Drifting into this timeless world, I could picture dinosaurs roaming about amid the rocks that were eons older than even those giant reptiles. More and more, it seemed like a land time forgot.’ (lines 55–61)

Explain the impression the writer creates in the example you have identified.

Read Text B, Plogging, in the insert and answer Question 3.

Question 3

(a) Summarise the benefits and attractions of 'plogging', according to Text B.

You must use continuous writing (not note form).

Use your own words as far as possible.

Avoid copying long sections of the text.

Your summary should be no more than 150 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer and up to 10 marks for the quality of your writing.
