Part One

Write on one of the following topics.

At the head of your composition put the number of the topic you have chosen.

You are advised to spend about 60 minutes on this part of the paper and to write between 350 and 600 words. Total marks for this part: 40.

1 Describe a place which is pleasant during the day but which is very different at night.

2 Write a story based on the sentence: 'It was only when I looked at the photograph that I saw just how similar we were.'

3 'People are much too interested in their appearance nowadays.' Do you agree?

4 What changes have you seen in your school since you joined it?

5 Write a story about someone who was wrongly accused and had to prove his or her innocence. (N.B. You must not repeat a story you have encountered elsewhere.)

Part Two

Begin your answer on a fresh page.

You are advised to spend about 30 minutes on this part of the paper and to write between 200 and 300 words. Total marks for this part: 20.

Your school is holding a writing competition. You are asked to write an article about a person you would like to change places with for a day. It could be a famous person or someone you know.

Write your article which will appear in your school magazine.

You must include the following:

- a suitable headline for your article
- which person you would like to change places with
- what you admire about that person
- what you would do on that day
- what you think you would learn from changing places with the person.

You must cover all five points in detail. You should also add further details if you wish and make your article lively and interesting for your fellow students.
