Section 1: Directed Writing

You are advised to write between 200 and 300 words. Total marks for this part: 30.

Task

Recently you witnessed a major disturbance at a railway station when many people were injured. You are asked by the local police to write an account of what you saw.

Write your account. You must include the following:

- when and where the incident happened and how close you were to the scene
- the cause of the disturbance and what exactly happened
- some of the ways in which people tried to help.

Cover all three points above in detail. You should make your account informative and helpful for the police to show you are a reliable witness. Start your account 'To the Police…' and remember to add your signature and the date.

Section 2: Creative Writing

Write on one of the following topics.

At the head of your essay put the number of the topic you have chosen.

You are advised to write between 350 and 500 words. Total marks for this part: 30.

1 Describe a time when you prefer to be alone and a time when you like to be part of a crowd. (Remember that you are describing the atmosphere and your feelings, not telling a story.)

2 What are the advantages and disadvantages of attending either a small school with few students or a large school with many students?

3 Write a story which includes the sentence: 'As we entered the building, the other people smiled as if they knew something we did not.'

4 Bullies.

5 Write a story about someone who returned to a village or town after a long time away. (You should include full details of why the person went away to show that it is an important part of your story.)
