(b) Summary

Now use your notes from 1(a) to write a summary of the advantages of out-of-town shops and shopping, and the advantages of town centre shops and shopping, as outlined in the passage.

Use your own words as far as possible. You will be awarded marks for producing a piece of writing which is relevant, well organised and easy to follow.

Your summary must be in continuous writing (not note form). You are advised to write between 150 and 180 words, including the 10 words given below.

Begin your summary as follows:

Out-of-town shopping in retail parks provides plenty of parking spaces ... This is due to the fact that there isn't much congestion for the drivers. They also enjoy a wide range of goods available in just but a single trip. The excellent weather with comfortable temperatures make the shopping easy as the shoppers access bigger stores which have a wider range of goods. This are also availed at a cheaper rate.

On the other hand, town centre shops and shopping emanates liveliness from whence the town residents get their pride. The council also gets revenue as a result of many occasional events held in the town. The residents also enjoy the variety modes of transports; walking, cycling and buses, making shopping easy no matter what ones class is - They also get several parks to relax in the town.

The out of town shops and the in town shops both offer advantages that are worth the mention as done above. [10]

10 Re-read paragraphs 5 and 6, which contain sentences telling us (a) what Joan said and (b) what the writer said.

Give:

- the meaning of each sentence as it is used in the passage
- the effect of each sentence as it is used in the passage.

(a) '"They'll take all my pretty things away and then they'll take me away."' (lines 32–33)

Meaning All the contents of the drawer would be removed and Joan would be arrested and Put in Prison.

Effect The writer feels sorry for Joan because she knew she was doing the wrong thing despite her forgetfulness. [2]

(b) '"I wonder if it was there in the first place or did I dream the whole thing up?" I said to myself.' (line 43)

Meaning the writer thinks she could be imagining things and thus the confusion.

Effect The writer is trying to understand what had happened because she hopes that Joan had not actually stolen the jewellery [2]
