www.PapaCambridge.com

UNIVERSITY of CAMBRIDGE International Examinations

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com

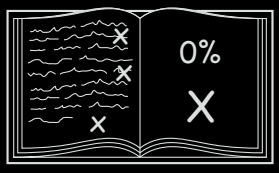

www.PapaCambridge.com

A

accident

B

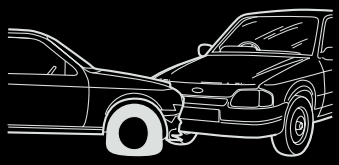

exam failure

C

fire

D

motor

24 Why would Mr and Mrs Lee be unable to insure a house owned by a neighbour?

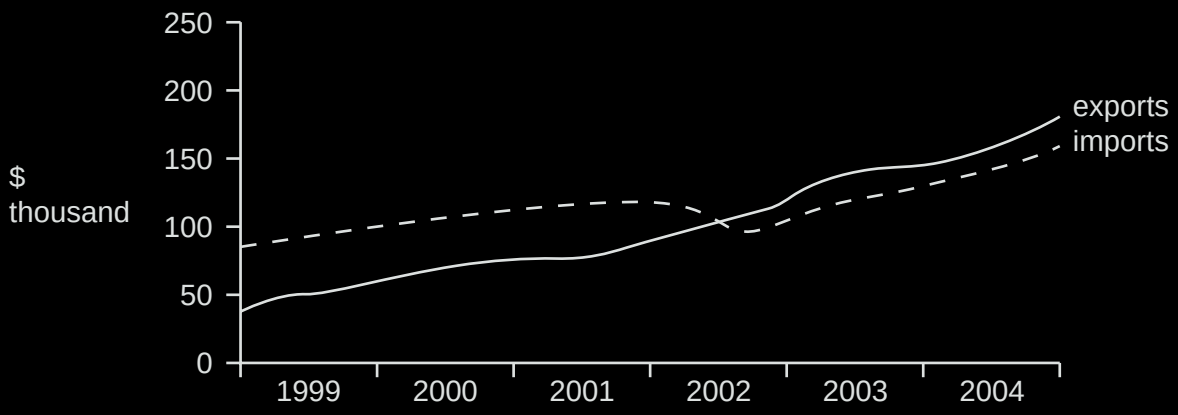

A A proposal form has not been completed.

B The house is too expensive.

C The risk cannot be assessed.

D They have no insurable interest in the house.

www.PapaCambridge.com

During which year did this country's exports and imports balance?

A 2000 B 2001 C 2002 D 2003

28 What may be classified as an invisible export for Hong Kong?

A expenditure by Hong Kong tourists in Australia

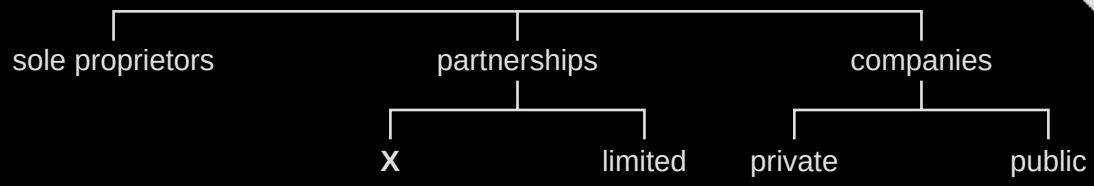

B expenditure by South African tourists in Hong Kong

C purchases of goods from the ASEAN area

D sales of manufactured goods to France

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com

What does X represent?

A authorised

B ordinary

C private

D sleeping

35 What will a bank not take into account when considering an application for a loan?

A collateral security

B other banks' interest rates

C the borrower's credit worthiness

D the purpose of the loan

36 Which type of business is likely to have the highest rate of turnover?

A a bakery

B a jeweller's shop

C a motor car dealer

D an electrical goods shop

37 Informal credit is most likely to be offered to customers of

A department stores.

B hypermarkets.

C independent retailers.

D multiple shops.

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com

www.PapaCambridge.com